The Left and the EU / Common Market In or Out - What's the Socialist View

Is the EU a capitalist project linked to a free market agenda that we should withdraw from? Should we stay in the EU and argue for reform with other socialists? Or, in or out, is the priority the fight for socialist ideas and developing wider solidarity movements?

This meeting will be an opportunity to listen to speakers and to take part in this discussion that is so important in the light of the upcoming referendum.

At all of the meetings so far there has been plenty of discussion. If we have time we can perhaps review developments in Greece and the leadership election in the Labour Party.

We can also take reports on local and national activities and decide on future meetings.
